

GONSALVES & KOZACHENKO

Gonsalves & Kozachenko Sponsors the 2007 Bay Area Hall of Fame Enshrinement Banquet

Partners Paul Kozachenko and Linda Gonsalves attended the 2007 Bay Area Hall of Fame induction ceremony, held in San Francisco on April 26th. The focus of the night's festivities was the induction of four Bay Area sports stars into the Bay Area Hall of Fame. The inductees were Jerry Colman and Will Clark for baseball, Jennifer Azzi for basketball, and Jerry Rice for football.

Gonsalves & Kozachenko sponsored a table at this celebratory event. The purpose of the Hall of Fame is to recognize the achievements of some of the Bay Area's greatest athletes and to raise money for youth sports. Thomas Martz, the president of the BASHOF, said that "we know that kids who play go down the path of life" and noted that the Hall of Fame has raised almost $3 million in its almost 30 years of existence.

Gonsalves & Kozachenko has a long history of promoting young athletes in Fremont. For many years, G&K has sponsored youth baseball. Tanya Stevenson's husband coaches a youth baseball team, TSB Baseball, here in Fremont. Tanya is our legal assistant in Estate Planning. Paul has devoted many of his afternoons and weekends to coach a highly successful Fremont soccer team. G&K also regularly supports local charities such as the Kristi Yamaguchi Always

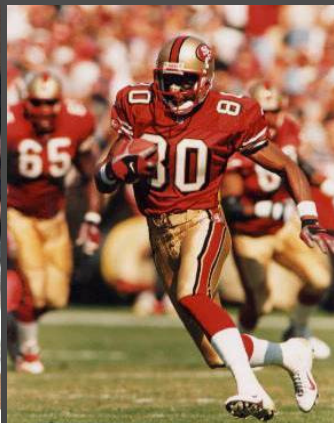

WILL CLARK

JERRY COLMAN

JENNIFER AZZI

JERRY RICE

sports learn lessons of competition and sportsmanship that will help them become better citizens as they